NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

3 New Babies Add to Growing North Torrance Population

By ADALINE CORTEZ DA 4-6876
Three new babies were born in North Torrance recently. Lucky parents number the Kent Proctors, 2633 W 175th St. whose first child, Deborah, was born at Torrance Memorial Hospital and weighed 7 lbs. 4 oz.
The Edward Grahams welcomed their fourth child, William Edward, at Kaiser Foundation Hospital. He weighed 8 lbs. 12 oz.
Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Walker, 17203 Casimir Ave. and daughters Dana, 10, and Linda, 6, were elated when James Paul, a 7 lb. 7 oz. boy, was born at Gardena Hospital.

was feted by neighbors at a birthday luncheon held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Stoecle, 1612 W. 175th St.
Janet Fariola, Pauline Kalso, Gloria Proctor, Verne Wilson, Rhea De Lange, Margie Donovan, Jean Worthon, Penny Rahmeyer, Marie Swanson, Elsie Edmarck and June Bryant and the hostess gave Bea a taffeta coat dress and a tangerine linen blouse.
The Weldon Larsens, of 17504 Falda Ave., went in search of the snows this weekend. They spent their time in Idyllwild.
The Alex Bates, of 17039 Glenburn Ave., motored to Mt. Wilson Sunday. Making the trip was daughter, Mary Jan, and Donna Morgan.

Residents should remember to turn on their porch lights on Monday between 7 and 9 p.m.
Frances Payne and Irene Allison are in charge of the North Torrance Elementary and Carr Elementary schools areas, and their legions of workers will be calling on persons to make this event a success.

Richard McDonald, of 17419 Falda Ave., is convalescing at home after surgery, which kept him at Torrance Memorial Hospital for five days.
Darrell Bronson, of 17229 Atkinson Ave., invited the neighborhood gang in for cake and ice cream on his birthday Tuesday. He was 10 years old.

Doing the nite spots on the Strip, dining at Sarnex and then listening to Lawrence Welk's orchestra provided a lively evening for the Eldon Morgans, of 17002 Glenburn Ave., and the Jack Gilberts, of 17221 Della Ave.

Two Torrance residents have joined San Pedro Theatre Arts for its coming production of Phillip Barry's Broadway hit, "The Philadelphia Story," to be presented Feb. 18, 19, 20, 25, 26 and 27 at the Royal Palms Playhouse, 4100 Paseo del Mar, San Pedro.

If any of you should pass the residence of the William Sales, 17002 Ainsworth Ave. this week and get the same odor of hash every night, it is because they spent the weekend in Las Vegas with a large group of friends.

Nancy Andrews, of 1421 Madrid, has accepted the Theatre Arts invitation to direct the production. Associated with the Palos Verdes Players, Miss Andrews has directed the children's theater there for two years. This is her first production with San Pedro Theatre Arts.

The Stitch and Chatter Club gave a farewell party for Mrs. Evelyn Stevens, of 2827 W. 176th St., who is moving to Palmdale. The party was held at Mrs. Verne Wilson's, home, 2935 W. 176th St.

Others in the cast are Bob Little, Jim Bridgeman, George Armstrong, Andy Rosenthal, Alma Bercovitz, Eleanor Frantz, Carol Peddicord, Bob Johnson, Bill Hunt, Mitzi Salmon, and Alex Owsley of Harbor City.

Measles Lead Disease List

Measles led the list of diseases in the Torrance area during the two-week period ending Jan. 22, the County Health Department reported Friday.
Out of 100 cases reported, Measles claimed 42 victims, mumps, 21, and chickenpox, nine. Torrance reported nine cases of measles, while Manhattan Beach had 17, Hermosa Beach seven, Torrance, six each; Gardena had five, and Hermosa Beach had one.
Torrance had six cases of mumps, two cases of polio and scarlet fever, and one case each of chickenpox, German measles, whooping cough, and syphilis.

PREXY SAYS YOUTH SEEK NEW CENTER

The Youth Co-ordinating Council has been reorganized and is making plans for getting a temporary youth center for Torrance teenagers, Larry Lippincott, new president, told the Torrance Co-ordinating Council Tuesday.
Also present at the meeting was Miss Lynette Mann, R., who thanked the council for its aid in securing a Torrance office of the Visiting Nurses' Assn., which she heads, Julius Klein, of the County Probation Department, described the functions of his office.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland, council health chairman, announced members of her committee: Dr. C. E. Easley, of the Torrance Medical Center; Miss Edna Chapman, Torrance High School nurse; Miss Mann; Dr. H. V. Markham, Torrance Schools doctor; Mrs. Frances Armstrong, County Health Service, and Loren Roberts, County Tuberculosis Assn.
In voting to change the council's meeting night to Thursday, the group set its next meeting for Feb. 3, in Room 10 of Greenwood School at 7:30.

Yo-Yo Champ Sought at Many Parks

All boys and girls who are interested in entering a Yo-Yo contest have a golden opportunity this time of year. All Torrance playgrounds, as well as Los Angeles city and county parks and playgrounds are conducting tournaments.
Torrance finals will be held March 5. Each winner will receive an all-wool Catalina sweater, and the right to enter the all city finals March 12.
Following parks are conducting tournaments: Walteria Park, El Retiro, Torrance Park, Evelyn Carr School playground, and Lomita Park, Alondra Park, Normandale Park.
